THAT INVESTIGATION.

Anderson, Darrall, Mrs. Jenks & Co. are a fine lot to blacken the reputation of Sherman, Matthews, Hayes and Stoughton. We can't accept this. Such evidence lacks the color of truth and is decidedly inconsistent and contradictory. It is very probable that Sherman and Matthews have been imposed upon by Anderson, Packard, et al, and have, in their political anxiety, intercourse and action in these Louisiana affairs and with and for the parties now playing into Democratic hands, committed political mistakes—not of a criminal character, by any means, but tending to compromise their dignity as high and honorable gentlemen. The Democrats place little confidence in the testimony of political tricksters who have violated the confidence and respect of the Republican party. They know such men will lie, and everyone despises a lying traitor. The investigation is, of course, for political capital, and to draw the President and other leading Republicans into a dirty political mess. That Potter and his crowd have been disappointed in the testimony elicited, there can be no question. They, at first, were in the possession of information which was of a cumulative and quite satisfactory character, but when the witnesses took the stand and were subjected to most rigid cross-examinations, the inherent weakness of their testimony became quite apparent. Since Tilden's managers would have little or nothing to do with much of the documentary evidence now sought to be introduced before the committee, and the testimony has developed into matter of such trivial worth, one can but presume that the Democrats themselves are even now disgusted with the inquiry, and the smirching which they sought to give to the leading Republicans of the adminstration is now turning upon themselves.

WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT.

At 5 o'clock yesterday morning, William Cullen Bryant, America's loved, honored and most venerable poet, passed to his "chamber in the silent halls of death, like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him, and lies down to pleasant dreams." Mr. Bryant was born at Cummington, Massachusetts, November 3d, 1794. His father gave him a college education at Williams' college. At twenty-one he was admitted to the bar, and practiced law in his native State for nearly ten years. During this time he wrote for the North American Review and published a volume of his poems. In 1825 he removed to New York, and was engaged as an editor of the New York Review. The following year he connected himself with the Evening Post, and in 1827 gained editorial control of that journal, a position he has held ever since. Among Mr. Bryant's literary productions are "Letters of a Traveler," a series of letters written during his European travels, his poetical writings and his translations of the Odyssey and the Iliad. As a journalist he swung a most influential pen. He was liberal and just in his thought, and his articles were written in pure, clear English. He was one of God's noblemen, a man distinguished as a scholar and an author—one who lived a pure life, and is to-day mourned by the best people of the English speaking world.

EUROPEAN CONGRESS.

The Berlin congress will probably set in secret session and only certain portions of its proceedings will be given to the public. Bismarck will preside. There is much conjecture as to the questions to be submitted and on matters of vital interest. Serious complexities it is presumed will arise. The conservative peace measure of Count Schouvaloff, have obtained in St. Petersburg, although Grand Duke Nicholas is reported disgusted with the pacific turn of affairs and is reported to have retired to his estates. The congress will be opened by Prince Bismarck as President by submitting his memorandum of points or a resume of the subjectato be treated directly by the plenipotentiaries. The business of the first sitting will be confined to a settlement of the question whether or not the congress shall invite Greece to participate in its transactions. A state banquet at the castle will be given the plenipotentiaries and their suites on Thursday or Friday evening.

NEW WATER SUPPLY.

Editor Gazette: Under the above heading appeared an article in a recent issue of your paper in which your informant would seemingly establish water rates in the town of Reno, and for the old company as well as the new company. The price of water, like the price of dry goods, will be regulated by the general law of supply and demand. Now, as you have inaugurated a water war, I propose to make a statement of facts by which purchasers may determine wisely as between the old and new companies. Mr. Evans takes his water from the same ditch that we do, but one and a half miles below, giving the Reno Water company about nine feet more pressure than the new company can possibly have. Between the points of connection made by the companies and above the ditch from which the new company obtain their water supply, are much used cattle and sheep corrals. Of course some impurities from these corrals must find their way into this water ditch, and thus not add to the desirability for drinking purposes of the water of the new water company. For the purpose of irrigation this water is all right, but the main object of town water is for use in slaking human thirst. The citizens of Reno can choose between the pure water of the Reno Water company and that of the new water company. Let those who wish good pure water inquire into the facts which I have stated and satisfy themselves.

SMITH HILL,
Agent Reno Water Company.

STATE NEWS.

Virginia city picnicers to Carson complain of the high prices charged them for every thing they get.

Two sisters, a Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Nichols indulged in a little target practice at each other's expense in Eureka last Monday. Wounds slight.

Dan De Quille, of the Enterprise, is perplexed at the rise and progress of the pig weed and asks, in the language of a troubled scientist, "How in the world came pig weed into the sage-brush country?"

The Sutro ranch, on the Carson river, is said by the Virginia papers to be a splendid place for a picnic. Wells Drury, of the News, bases his claim on the alfalfa being two or three feet high, and is a billowy sea of green which shuts out all less beautiful prospects.

A letter was received from Carson June 12th, saying that the Governor has been urged to call out the militia for the purpose of quelling the Indian outbreak. The Governor has not yet consented to do so but he probably will before long, and he says that if he ever does, he will require every company in the State to appear in full force. Those who are fond of playing soldier will have a chance to see actual service.

Eureka Republican: It is cruel and unjust to blame Deacon Parkinson for the amazing chunks of contradiction which fill the columns of that admirable, but astonishing journal, the Tribune. The good old gentleman is merely a writing medium. There is always a jostling mob of ghosts waiting to get a chance at the Deacon, and ghosts, like mortals, don't all think alike. It is a solemn thought that the only influential newspaper in Nevada is edited by the lightest half of a corpse.

Old potatoes command 6½ cents per pound in Tybo; new potatoes 15 cents. Spuds are among the luxuries all over the United States this year. They are so scarce and high in California and Nevada; and we noticed an item in a New York paper recently which stated that the price of potatoes in that city had advanced 100 per cent, in a single day. We suppose this trouble in the potato market is occasioned by fears of a Fenian raid on Canada.

And now Mighels, of the Appeal, is in trouble. The Democratic committee desire him to send them a copy of the Appeal gratis. He is in a quandary whether to attribute it to Pettengill's directory or their desire to seek "the way, the truth and the life." As we wish no special success and enduring enjoyment to this committee, we hope the Carson Appeal will regularly be sent to Mr. Walker, the beseeching Secretary of the herein mentioned Democratic committee.

"Raise that Pot and I'll raise you." said Johnson to Bush, in the midst of a poker game in Eureka, California, drawing a revolver. Bush did not heed the warning, and was shot through the head.

ESTRAY.

CAME TO THE PREMISES OF THE undersigned Sunday, June 9th. The Bannock Butchers.

The following dispatch was received at Winnemucca Tuesday night:

CAMP MCDERMIT, June 11th, 7 P. M. —A. J. Sheppard: Send us by telegraph authority to take the four cases of rifles now stored at the suttler's here, awaiting your orders. We will be responsible for them. The country for miles around is infested with Bannocks, who are burning every ranch as they go, and driving off the stock. If we don't get guns we will suffer severely. The people are all coming in to Camp McDermit for protection, and only a few infantry men are here. We must have the guns if we are obliged to take them by force. The Indians have taken all the horses and cattle from Burns' and Tom Davidson's ranches and burned the houses. All the citizens who could get to White Horse Ranch are there at the present time corraled, and must remain there until we return with men and arms to relieve them. Your guns cannot go to Silver, as all the stages have stopped running, and cannot get beyond this place.

W. B. TODHUNTER.
J. F. BURNS.

Ten-Mile station, on the Idaho road, has been burned. Mr. Sheppard telegraphed authority to use the guns and ammunition referred to in the above dispatch. A company of sixteen selected men was at once organized and yesterday morning left Winnemucca to scout along the stage road leading north and render all possible assistance to settlers.

General McDowell, commander of the Pacific coast division of the U. S. army, yesterday sent the following telegram to Judge Bonnifield:

Judge Bonnifield, Winnemucca—I send two companies from Alcatraz to Winnemucca to-day. A company of cavalry is on the way from Camp Bidwell to McDermit. MCDOWELL.

The following dispatch was received at Winnemucca yesterday:

CARSON, June 12th.—W. S. Bonnifield and R. W. Wood: Cannot send arms before 7 o'clock this evening. Telegraph your wants before 4 o'clock P. M. to-day. Governor Bradley will reach Winnemucca on the Eastern train to-day. W. GARRARD.

Three cases of arms and several thousand rounds of ammunition were sent from Carson to Winnemucca last night.

All stage communication on the Idaho road has been cut off. The Bannocks are occasionully killing a settler, burning ranches and driving off stock.

Investigating the Election Frauds.

The Potter investigating committee resumed its sitting yesterday, Morrison presiding, and Darrall, of Louisiana, was examined by Cox. He said: "Shortly after my conversation with Potter, Anderson told me he had seen Matthews and threatened him with publication of certain documents, and pictured to Matthews the scandal it would raise; and that, in reply, Matthews told Anderson if he was inclined to pursue that course he might go on and publish anything he desired. Subsequently Matthews said to the witness that he would have nothing futher to do with Anderson if he intended publishing the document." Witness said that he had seen the original of the Nash agreement in Washington and related the circumstances. Nash afterwards explained to witness that he signed it in a foolish moment and ought not have done so. Witness never had a conversation with Sherman about the so-called Sherman letter, and believes there is no such documents. Witness said that Anderson when at home, was much dissipated, but, although his reputation might be considered bad in the North, it was considered good to fair in New Orleans.

A Charge Against the President.

A Washington dispatch of June 12th says: Hayes is open to the charge of tampering with witnesses. The Democrats were greatly disappointed in Darrall's unwillingness to testify. He has been talking very plainly to them for a day or two, and even up to 10 o'clock yesterday morning was pouring tales of his wrongs into the willing ears of McMahon. Just before he went on the stand Hayes sent for him, and from that time Darrall's tone changed. After a close examination to-day he received another summons from the White House, and has been closeted there a long time this evening.

Orangemen to Celebrate.

The Orangemen of Montreal have resolved to celebrate the 12th of July by a procession to church. The county and district masters issued an address in which they say that they intend to comply strictly with the provisions of the Blake act and go unarmed, play no party tunes in the streets, and will trust themselves to the protection which it is the duty of the civil and other authorities to afford to all law abiding persons. If, however, they are made to know that they are outlawed, any assistance they may receive from friends will not be refused. Speaking of the Orange body, they gladly join in abolishing all public processions except one, distinctly Canadian.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The Empress of Russia lies near death's door.

Emperor Wilhelm of Germany is rapidly recovering.

William Cullen Bryant died at New York June 12th at 5:35 A. M.

The Orangemen of Montreal, Canada, will celebrate the battle of Boynton on the 12th of July.

The laborer's riot at Quebec has been quelled and the B battery is guarding the Parliament house.

A Rome dispatch says the many recent reports of the Pope's failing health and his intended abdication are unfounded.

The Vatican has decided to propose co-operation with Germany for the repression of Socialism there, on condition that the Falk laws are modified.

President Hayes, Gen. Sherman, Gen. Devens, Gen. Sheridan and other distinguished guests are attending the commencement exercises at West Point.

The general elections in Belgium are over. Returns show that the Liberals will have a majority of four in the Chamber of Representatives, and therefore the downfall of the present Catholic Ministry is predicted.

News from Tuscarora, up to June 12th says. Lieutenant-General Adams arrived here yesterday morning with 100 guns and ammunition. He left for Cornucopia this afternoon with sixty guns. He will take all necessary steps for the protection of the settlers in the northern part of the State.

Dr. G. A. Shurtleff was re-elected Superintendent of the insane asylum at Stockton June 11th by a vote of four to one, notwithstanding numerous petitions from Democratic physicians, Democratic state and county committees and from prominent Democrats to elect a Democratic Superintendent.

An Indian Abductor Killed.

A Hollister dispatch of the 11th says: On Friday night last an Indian named Rojeciano abducted Isabel Foote, an orphan child seven or eight years of age, from the house of her sister, Mrs. Soto, near the Los Aguelos ranch, in San Benito county, and fled to the mountains with her. Mr. Soto obtained a warrant, and with a companior went in pursuit, and when overtaken the next day, he attempted to shoot his pursuers, when he was fired upon and killed. The child was rescued.

A Horrible Case of Starvation.

In San Francisco, June 11th, a case of starvation was reported to the Coroner, the victim being a Chinawoman, who was found dead in a wretched apartment on Pacific street, just above Bull Run alley. She had outlived her usefulness, and her master had left her to perish from want. She presented a horrible appearance when found. She was wasted to a mere skeleton, and the rats had devoured her features and dug her eyes from their socket.

Suggestion to the President.

The N. Y. Herald's Washington special says there is a growing feeling among decent people that the President ought for his own sake to summarily dismiss from office the whole crew of disreputable people, beginning with the members of the Returning Board, whom his evil genius has induced him to favor, contrary to the advice of many of the best men of his party.
